

Frontier Names Roy Labrador National Vice President of Channel Partners Program

February 5, 2018

NORWALK, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 5, 2018-- Frontier Communications Corporation (NASDAQ:FTR) has announced that Roy Labrador, a telecommunications expert with more than 25 years of experience in small, medium, and enterprise sales, has been named National Vice President of its Channel Partners Program.

"Roy brings a wealth of industry experience to this critical role," said Michelle Wolloff, Senior Vice President and General Manager at Frontier. "Investing in, expanding and improving our Channel Partner Program is a top priority for Frontier. Roy's leadership and track record will ensure we continue to drive our commercial sector growth."

Labrador previously served as Vice President, Commercial Sales-Southeast, overseeing the growth and expansion of Frontier's presence in cloud, unified communications and industry-specific communication and data solutions.

"I am extremely excited about the opportunity to work with master agents throughout the country," said Labrador. "Frontier Communications has deployed multiple product enhancements and invested in a streamlined and stronger back office to support our master agents. Together, we are ensuring our customers benefit from ever-changing technology needs."
