

Frontier Communications and CWA West Virginia Reach Tentative Agreement

March 26, 2018

CHARLESTON, W. Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 26, 2018-- Frontier Communications Corporation (NASDAQ: FTR) today announced it has reached a new tentative labor agreement with CWA 142. The previous CWA contract expired on March 3, 2018. The tentative agreement will now be submitted to the workforce for a ratification vote. The CWA 142 local includes approximately 1,400 Frontier employees who provide local service in West Virginia.

"We are very pleased a tentative agreement has been reached," said Chris Levendos, Frontier Executive Vice President, Field Operations. "We are eager to have the CWA-represented members back at work focused on providing quality customer service and expanding broadband connectivity throughout the state."
